

Saint David's Day Dinner 2006
The Royal Welch Fusiliers in America

From Lt. Frederick MacKenzie's Dairy: 1st March 1775 (Boston):
"This being St. David's Day, the Officers of the 23rd Regiment, or Royal Welch Fusiliers, dined together according to the Custom.
All the General & Staff Officers, The Admiral, and several other persons were invited to dine with the Regiment..."

The presentation of the Leek....

Captain Morgan eats the Leek...

...and drinks the toast...
... "a Dewi Sant!"

Even young Drake eats the leek!

A man in a red military-style jacket with a black and white sash and white breeches is performing a stunt on a table. He is holding a small green object in his right hand. In the foreground, the back of a person's head with a black hair tie is visible. To the right, a person in a white uniform with a red and black hat is looking towards the man. In the background, a woman is seated at a table with a lit candle. The scene is indoors with a dark paneled wall.

All for the Glory of the Regiment "
...and Saint David!"
