

The Fusilier

October 2018

--From the Commander--

Greetings Fellow Fusiliers,

There have been some changes to the schedule since last month mainly due to Hurricane Florence landing on the North and South Carolina coasts. Our thoughts and prayers are for the fatally injured and those still recovering from the disaster. The storm caused the planners to reschedule the Mount Harmon event for October 27-28. I consulted with the Regimental leadership and decided that due to a variety of circumstances we cannot support the event. Joe Siegel is attending in his role as Brigade Drum Major. I advised Brigadier McGaughey that the 23rd is not fielding any muskets at Mount Harmon.

The 23rd is closing out the campaign season in traditional fashion with a couple of additions. We are supporting both the annual Philadelphia area events at Germantown (October 6) and Hope Lodge (November 3-4). The flank company corporals, Justin Parker of the Grenadier Coy and Mike Miller of the Light Bobs have two events in the NYC region for those unable to travel to Philly. Justin created a one-day muster and drill at Old Bethpage Village on Saturday, October 13th. Please contact him directly for more information. His e-mail is listed on the campaign schedule in the Operations section of the newsletter. Mike Miller is heading up the 23rd at an event at Putnam Park in Redding, Connecticut on November 3rd. Please contact Mike for more information.

To close this newsletter out on a good note, please welcome Grenadier recruit Steven Beebe of Colorado Springs, Colorado into our ranks. Jason Smith recruited Steve, both were World War II re-enactors. Steve will field as a Grenadier, but will be attached to Capt. Ferguson's Company under George Mack's command. Please welcome Steve when you see him.

Ich Dien,
Shane
