

The Fusilier

March/April 2019

--From the Commander--

Gentlemen,

Personal Note: I began working a part time job during weekday evenings. There may be a delay in my response to an e-mail or inquiry due to my new schedule. Please don't take this as an affront or me ignoring your request. I promise I will answer your response, although it may not be as promptly as it was in the past.

A belated An Dewi Sant to all of our members past and present. Paul Astle set up a small dinner near Philadelphia to celebrate St. David's Day. Attendees included Paul, his wife, and Greg and Cathy Urwin. We had a splendid evening with some great conversation, food, and drinks.

There is another addition to the season calendar, the Celtic Fest in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, September 28-29. We have also been invited to speak, forty minutes on Saturday and twenty minutes on Sunday; more details to follow.

This weekend GV Eric Spaar and his contingent from Capt. Horsefall's Company are participating in the annual Guilford Courthouse reenactment. I will post an after action report in the next edition.

Capt. Ferguson's Company took the field against the rebels at the Huntington Beach, California, February 16-18. Capt. Jack Pritchard led the 23rd and served as the overall Crown Force commander. His contingent included: Sjt. Dave Nighswonger, Thomas Stein, Dennis LeMay, Arthur Mayhem, Chris Cole, Desmond, Eric Ledesma, James Teahan, and Nick Usenko. The event included four battles, two on each day. The second battle on Sunday was rained out, sparing the rebels any further humiliation. Thank you all for doing such great job in driving the rebels off.

Thank you all and I look forward to seeing you on the field this season.

I am with great regard,

Maj. S.P. Reilly
