

The Fusilier

May 2018

---

–From the Commander–

Gents,

Campaign season is underway with 23rd members participating in events at Guilford Courthouse and Mount Vernon. I hope you are all getting your kit in good order as we approach the warmer months and the heart of the season. This edition of the Fusilier includes a brief update on the Regimental teleconference (April 22), an after action report on the Mount Vernon event from Eric Spaar, and changes to the event schedule.

On behalf of the Regiment, I would like to welcome Tim Brieady from Kernersville, NC and Shane Watson from Boone, NC into the RWFIA. These gentlemen are joining Capt. Horsefall's Company under the command of GV Eric Spaar. Please greet these two new recruits with a handshake and a leek when you meet them.

The unit held its bi-annual Regimental teleconference on April 22nd. The second one will follow at the conclusion of the 2018 campaign season (November) and prior to the annual British Brigade meeting (January). Here are some topics from the telecon:

- Finance brief by the Adjutant
- Review of the 2018 event calendar
- Commander's efforts to obtain manuals to ensure organizational standardization
- Quartermaster's Report- currently have 15 yards of Russian Drill (five pair of large trousers. Currently looking for bearskin cap vendors.
- Campfollower fees: $5.00 for a family member; $10.00 for non-family members and children (up to age 14) are free.
- Mike Miller needs new photographs to update the Regimental website.

Members of Capt. Horsefall's Company participated in the Guilford Courthouse event in March. Here is a brief report from the commander, GV Eric Spaar:

Guilford Courthouse 2018 went well for the 23rd this year. We had Alex, Joe Evans and his son, Ben Beers, my son Jon and I in attendance. It was a perfect day for the battle - cool with a little overcast. We marched the usual few miles to the staging point - the British were outnumbered but not in spirit. We battled the Americans through the woods forcing them back into a large clearing - the cannons had a duel for what seemed thirty minutes - finally we rushed the Americans with bayonets and took the day. We also had a few people inquire about the 23rd who I'm currently in contact with - overall a good event for the battle and recruiting.

Here are a couple of updates to the event schedule:

- Addition of an event at the Mill at Anselm (June 2). The site is about 8-9 miles from the Malvern event on June 3. Camping is available at Anselma. This scenario is based on a British raid during the Philadelphia Campaign. Uniform is late war kit.
- The British Brigade School of the Soldier (June 29- July 1) in Dillsburg is cancelled.

One final note on updating your kit or getting one together, please feel free to contact any of the tailors/seamstresses in the Quartermaster section. All of them do quality work at reasonable prices. All of that you have to do is tell them what you want, order materials (if necessary from the QM stores), accurately fill out a sizing chart and pay the agreed upon amount(s).

Thank you all for your service to the Regiment and I hope to see you on the field this season.

Ich Dien,

Shane
